DAVE FRISHBERG TO PLAY AT BAKE'S

Modern jazz pianist and contemporary composer scheduled for October 23.

ISSAQUAH, WA- Portland pianist Dave Frishberg will be making a one-night-only performance at Bake's Place on Saturday, October 23.

Dave Frishberg is a modern jazz pianist and composer, who is known for his light-hearted songs such as "I'm Hip," "Peel Me a Grape" and "My Attorney Bernie." Frishberg was a mainstay on the New York jazz scene during the 1960's before moving to Los Angeles in 1971. Throughout his career, Frishberg has played with jazz greats such as Gene Krupa, Ben Webster and Zoot Sims and has also accompanied vocal jazz legends Carmen McRae, Anita O'Day and Irene Kral. Frishberg has been living and working in Portland since 1986.

The show time for this performance is 7:45pm. Dinner service starts at 6pm. Reservations can be made by calling 425-391-3335 or by sending an email to events@bakesplace.org.

Bake's Place is the Northwest's premiere jazz supper club. Nestled into the serene, hillside setting of Providence Point in Issaquah, this elegant establishment is home to several of the regions top jazz performers and is also a frequent stop for national, touring artists. It was named as one of the "top 100 jazz clubs in the world" by Downbeat magazine. Bake's is located at 4135 Providence Point Dr. SE, Issaquah, WA 98029. Phone is 425-391-3335. For more information, visit www.bakesplace.org
